Provide for the Heating of National School Houses in Ireland.

A.D. 1908.

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

5 1. A manager of a national school in Ireland, when requested by the school attendance committee for the district in which the school is situate, shall, and without such request may, take such steps as may be necessary for the proper heating of such national school during the hours of attendance. Power of manager.

10 2.—(1) The cost of making such provision shall be defrayed as to one half by the Commissioners of National Education in Ireland and paid by them to the manager of such school out of moneys to be provided by Parliament subject to rules to be made by the Commissioners with the approval of the Treasury. Cost.

15 (2) The remaining half of the cost of making such provision shall be defrayed by the school attendance committee and paid by them to the manager and shall be deemed to be part of the expenses of such school attendance committee within the meaning of section three, subsection (5), of the Irish Education 20 Act, 1892.

3. This Act shall come into force on the first day of November nineteen hundred and eight. Commencement.

4. This Act may be cited as the National Schools Heating (Ireland) Act, 1908. Short title.
